

Norfolk Social News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., November 16.—This has been a dreary, in fact an unusually quiet week in local society. There have been the usual affairs of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and there have been several marriages of the kind, but the week has been marked by the social functions of the last seven days.

Naturally the meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy has brought about many entertainments, both personal and public. There have been dinners and entertainments given, and on occasions certain street corners have been more than beautified by pretty girls in attractive waists of Confederate gray.

Again, the American Federation of Labor is meeting in the city, and there have been a number of entertainments in honor of the ladies who have accompanied the delegates. The federation has confined its work to strictly business matters, but there have been several automobile parties in honor of their wives and daughters.

The main social function of the week on Thanksgiving night will be a fraternity ball, given by the local Alumni Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, to the other members of the fraternity in Norfolk on that day. This ball will be one of the largest in the history of the city, and will be held in the Convention Hall. The music will be furnished by the band of the University of Virginia, playing the "Academic" march. The ball will be in Norfolk on that day, and Richmond College, playing William and Mary, Newport News, will bring a large number of the members of Sigma Phi Epsilon to the exposition, as this fraternity has chapters in all four of the institutions playing here Thanksgiving. In addition to about twenty-five other chapters, in the leading colleges and universities of this country, particularly in the North and West, November 28th has already been named as Sigma Phi Epsilon Day at the exposition.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church, after the half-past six o'clock mass, when Miss Cora M. Lawler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Lawler, became the bride of Mr. John P. Lawler, the Rev. Father Smith, of St. Vincent's Hospital, performing the ceremony.

Misses Moore and Martin, of Georgetown, Ky., who have spent the summer and fall on Willoughby Beach, have closed their cottage and are returning home. Miss Mabel Walker, who has been their guest for several weeks, has also left for her home at Versailles, Ky.

Invitations have been received in town from Governor and Mrs. Warfield, of Maryland, to a ball to be given Tuesday evening, November 19th, at the Government House in Annapolis, Md., in honor of their daughter, Miss Louise Warfield, who is one of the season's debutantes.

Miss Alice Codson, of Washington, D. C., and Hon. Mr. Mason, a member of the Virginia legislature, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Speight, in Freemason Street.

Miss Lucy Stephenson Simpson, of Maryland, has been invited to the marriage of her niece, Miss Lucy Isabelle Mason, to Mr. Hugh Johnson, of Berkeley, the wedding taking place on Wednesday, November 27, 1907, at noon, at the bride's residence in Rockville, Md.

Colonel and Mrs. John Harwood, of Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Harwood, Mrs. John C. Harwood, Mrs. William H. Tyler, Mrs. C. C. Rosenbaum, Mrs. M. O. Culpeper, Mr. Garnett Tabb, Mr. Sills and Mrs. Benjamin Tyler were in Portsmouth Thursday to attend the Harwood-Wilkins wedding.

Miss Bessie Fontaine, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of Miss Marjorie Old, in Front Street, Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Stamps Howard, of Tarboro, N. C., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Kennon, in Yarmouth Street.
